DAVID KAM NAMED CHIEF, CONTRACTING DIVISION

David Kam has been named chief, contracting division, for the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers' Albuquerque District.

The Albuquerque District, with a work program of almost $500 million, manages military, civil works, and environmental projects in New Mexico and in parts of Colorado and west Texas.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Kam received his bachelor's degree from the University of Hawaii and a master's degree from Cal State, Long Beach. He is also a graduate of the U. S. Army Management Staff College.

He served Honolulu District from 1992 to 2009, the last nine years as chief of contracting. He also served as the acting chief of contracting, Omaha District from June 2009 through November 2009.

He received the USACE Excellence in Contracting 2009 Leadership Award for his efforts at the Omaha District.
